BENJAMIN TAVERNITI

Fashion Designer · Known professionally as Ben Taverniti

NVL GARDE

Benjamin first worked with Stan before he founded Chill Travel Paris in 2018.

“I’ve been working with Stan of Chill Travel Paris for 16 years. Living between Los Angeles, Milan, and Paris, my schedule is constantly changing—flights move, plans shift, and requests often come at the last minute. I’ve certainly put him to the test over the years, and he has always been there for me.”

“Whether it’s arranging airport greeters, car services in Paris, or transfers for my clients, my family, or myself, Stan handles everything with care and reliability. Having someone I can call who knows me, understands how I travel, and can adapt when everything changes makes an enormous difference.”

“That confidence comes from 16 years of consistently showing up and making things work.”

“I’m grateful for both the service and the friendship, and I wholeheartedly recommend him and Chill Travel Paris.”
